CHARLES F. (Charlie) THOMAS Chairman of the Board

"Charlie Thomas is the consummate self-made man, a roll-up your sleeves sort of business mogul...at 5-9 he plays above the corporate rim...starting out at age 18 as an auto parts runner for $40 a week, he now owns more than 25 automobile dealerships...and 54 per cent of the Houston Rockets...His money is sunk into real estate, ranching, banking, hotels, insurance and television...He lives in River Oaks, but enjoys frequent visits to his homes on the beach in Malibu and another on 17-Mile Drive in Pebble Beach, Calif.,....In less than four years, he has used his business savvy, and a couple of winning coin flips, to build one of the most envied franchises in the NBA." (HOUSTON POST, Ray Buck, April 27, 1986)

For the last few years Charlie Thomas has been expanding his network of automobile dealerships, but still has had time to dabble in real estate, including a recently acquired specialty retail and office center near The Summit known as the Gardens of Bammel Lane off Kirby Drive.

Charlie Thomas was a quietly successful automobile dealer in the summer of 1982 who has since become a famous successful owner of the Houston Rockets. He purchased the team for around $10 million and has nurtured it to where an August, 1986 Fortune Magazine ranking of pro team values placed Houston in the $31-$35 million category. More recently, the San Antonio Spurs sold for $48 million, suggesting that the Rockets are worth well over $50 million.

Entering his seventh season as the Rockets' owner, longer than any of the prior six proprietorships of the team, his style of operation has influenced the complete franchise. He brought in Austin developer Gary Bradley as a 20 per cent owner in 1984 and sold limited partnerships in the remaining 26 per cent of the club.

His management team is headed by 22-year NBA front-office veteran President Ray Patterson, who has been President and General Manager of the Rockets for 17 years, first-year General Manager Steve Patterson and second-year Head Coach Don Chaney. Within four years Thomas saw his team go from the bottom with a 14-68 record to winning the Western Conference with a 51-31 mark before falling in the finals to the Boston Celtics in 1986. The Rockets have made the playoffs each of the last five seasons.

Since his first year as an owner when attendance was an average 7,491, there have been yearly increases to a record sellout mark of 16,611 in 1987-88. Houston has sold out 135 of the last 137 games (37 straight) in The Summit (including playoffs and exhibitions). The Rockets also receive a 49 per cent share of the profits of the Arena Operating Company, plus they also have the rights to selling all signage in the arena. A broadcast package second to none in pro sports completes the package with all games broadcast on KTRH Radio-740 and in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM), all road games telecast on KTXH-TV 20 and all home games on Home Sports Entertainment cable.

Born in Knoxville, Tenn., where he attended the University of Tennessee for two years, he became a Texan in 1956 when he joined an auto agency in Corpus Christi. He purchased his first agency in 1967 in Baytown. He was the 1982 recipient of the "Mr. Sportsman" award given by Interfaith Charities, a joint effort of the B'Nai B'rith and the Knights of Columbus, and was honoree at the Easter Seals Gala in October 1986. He was honored by the City of Houston at its 153rd Anniversary Dinner and Celebration.

Charlie and his wife Kittsie reside in Houston. They are the parents of three daughters: Kelly; Robin (Mrs. Daniel) Klaes, and Tracy (Mrs. P. Jeffery) Everist.

GARY BRADLEY Vice-Chairman of the Board

An Austin real estate developer, Gary Bradley, is currently developing Austin's largest master-planned community--Circle C Ranch. Bradley is a self-confessed basketball fanatic who bought into the Houston Rockets, Aug. 15, 1984 and now owns approximately 25 per cent. Charlie Thomas remains the team's majority shareholder and general partner with a 54 per cent interest while the remaining 21 per cent is shared by 30 limited partners. Both Thomas and Bradley are seen quite frequently at Rockets out of town games in addition to the home contests. Bradley, 40, is a native of Amherst, a town of 825 located 50 miles northwest of Lubbock. He has been an Austin resident the last 20 years since enrolling at the University of Texas where he received his degree in finance. Since graduation he has been involved in the Austin real estate market.

RAY A. PATTERSON

President

Ray Patterson is entering his 18th season as the Rockets' chief officer, his 22nd in the NBA. This is Patterson's eighth year under club owner Charlie Thomas, his longest term under the same owner. His term as an NBA chief officer is equaled by Jerry Colangelo at Phoenix, surpassed only by Red Auerbach's 37 years with Boston. Of those in the league when Patterson started with Milwaukee and Colangelo at Phoenix in 1968, the only remaining owner is Abe Pollin of Washington.

His 32-year-old son, Steve, was promoted to General Manager on Sept. 11, 1989 giving the Rockets the first father-son duo to run an NBA franchise as President and GM.

Several distinctions belong to Patterson during his NBA tenure. He is the only General Manager in the league's 42 years to have two different franchises in the World Championship series. His 1971 Milwaukee Bucks captured the championship in the quickest leap, three years, from expansion to championship in pro sports history. His 1981 and 1986 Rockets lost in the finals to the Boston Celtics. Only a handful of front office chiefs have been to the finals three times. Patterson's 21 teams have earned 14 playoff berths, including nine of the last 11 seasons. His teams have won four division and three conference championships.

This success on the court is also reflected at the gate as the Rockets have sold out 135 of their last 137 home games (this includes exhibition and playoff games), and take a 37-game consecutive sellout streak into 1989-90. Houston has drawn more than 600,000 fans four straight seasons, and it broke its single-season attendance record a fourth-straight year with 681,051 fans in 1987-88. Patterson has helped cultivate a following for the team from an attendance low of 3,855 per game in 1973-74 to 1987-88's record sellout mark of 16,611 (the first year in franchise history every home game sold out). The last five Rockets' teams have become members of an elite group of NBA franchises to combine for over a million in home and road attendance.

Patterson has been the unifying force behind the Rockets in Houston, joining the team in 1972 in its second season in Texas. He is just the third general manager in the 23-year history of the franchise which started in San Diego in 1967. Jack McMahon was the first Rockets' general manager in 1967-68, and he was followed by Pete Newell who served three years until 1972.

Under Patterson, the Rockets have an aggressive marketing package which supplements one of the finest broadcast packages in pro sports. All games are broadcast on the 17-station radio network which includes Houston flagship station KTRH Radio-740; games are also broadcast in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM). Long-range agreements have been signed for the telecast of all road games on KTXH-TV 20 and all home games on Home Sports Entertainment cable. The Rockets also own the rights to sell signage in the arena.

Fortune Magazine ranked the values of pro sports teams in the last few years, and listed the Rockets among the Top Eight in the NBA with a $31-$35 million value reflective of market size, management, marketing and competitiveness. The San Antonio Spurs sold for $48 million during the summer of 1988, giving a more realistic estimate of the Rockets' value. An indication of just how far Patterson has guided this franchise is the Rockets' total attendance in 1973-74 was 158,059, with the highest ticket priced at $6.

Born in Lafayette, IN, Patterson holds Bachelor and Masters degrees from the University of Wisconsin where he was a four-year varsity basketball letter winner. He was team captain and MVP his final two seasons, and as a senior edged Arnie Risen of Big 10 champion Ohio State as first-team all-conference center. Patterson played two seasons of pro basketball with the Flint, MI, team in the National Basketball League. He returned to his prep school, Wayland Academy in Beaver Dam, WI, as basketball coach in 1949. He was named President and Headmaster of the school in 1954. He became the first President of the Milwaukee Bucks in 1968 and after four years there came to Houston as President and General Manager in May 1972. He also serves on the Board of the South Main Bank.

Ray and his wife, Ruth, reside in Sugar Land. They have three sons and two daughters: Pat, a Princeton graduate; Steve, Liz, Peg and Pete, all University of Texas graduates.

STEVE PATTERSON

General Manager

Steve Patterson became the Houston Rockets' fourth General Manager on Sept. 11, 1989. Patterson, 32, is the youngest GM in the NBA—plus this marks the first time a father (Ray) and son have combined to run a team as President and General Manager. Ray Patterson had been the Rockets' President and General Manager since May 1, 1972.

"I am glad Charlie Thomas has the confidence to give me this responsibility," Steve Patterson said. "It is a great opportunity. I have learned a lot from Charlie Thomas and Ray...I'm sure I will continue to learn a lot from them every day."

Patterson is beginning his sixth fulltime season with the Rockets, having served as Counsel to the President the last five years. Patterson has been involved in most every aspect of the club. He is responsible for all business aspects of the franchise, including the team's marketing and merchandising, negotiation of player contracts, working with the NBA's legal department, negotiations for lease agreements, plus negotiating television and cable contracts (such as the new six-year contract with Home Sports Entertainment), and doing all the salary cap permutations for the trades made in the last two years.

Patterson literally started on the ground floor as he sold Rockets' season tickets and helped in other areas during the summer months from 1976 through 1983.

Upon earning his Law Degree from the University of Texas (1984), he became Counsel to the President for the Rockets and was put in charge of marketing—he also was group ticket sales manager. He took over the business operations in 1986.

Upon coming to the Rockets on a fulltime basis, Patterson installed a computer network in the front office that handles all the team's ticketing operations as well as word processing, accounting, scouting and salary cap information. This system has been of great assistance in the Rockets maintaining the NBA's highest season-ticket base (over 14,000 seats) the last five seasons. Patterson helped coordinate the Rockets' successful bid for the 1989 NBA All-Star game played in the Astrodome (Feb. 12, 1989). Under Patterson's direction the Rockets have developed a five-state, 19-station radio network anchored by the 50,000-watt flagship KTRH (740 AM). Last season the Rockets became one of only three teams to broadcast all of its games in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM) as a way of reaching Houston's long ignored Spanish speaking population.

Patterson graduated from Dulles High School (Houston) in May of 1975, where he started on the basketball team (ranked fifth in Texas) his senior year. Patterson, born Sept. 21, 1957 in Beaver Dam, Wis., then attended the University of Texas where he graduated with honors, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing in December, 1980. Then he attended UT's Law School where he graduated in 1984, and was admitted to the Texas Bar, Nov. 2, 1984.

Patterson, single, enjoys traveling to "exotic" places, reading and has practiced yoga the last nine years.

DON CHANEY

Head Coach

"This is a man who can take us where we want to go." Rockets' Owner Charlie Thomas, June 14, 1988, Houston Post.

Don Chaney became the eighth head coach in the Rockets' 23-year history on June 13, 1988 and after one season it looks like he has backed up Thomas' words.

Houston finished 45-37, one game off the 1987-88 pace, but there were drastic improvements: 1) Houston finished 2nd in the Midwest Division after placing fourth in 1987-88; 2) Houston was 19-11 vs the Midwest as compared to 13-17 in 1987-88; 3) Houston was 8-7 in road games vs the Midwest after going 3-12 in 1987-88; 4) Houston didn't have a losing record during any month of the season—a franchise first; 5) Houston had a 6-game overall winning streak, plus an 8-game home winning streak—the best streaks since 1985-86; 6) Houston picked up defensive intensity as it limited opponents to less than 100 points 23 times as compared to 17 in 1987-88—plus the Rockets were 40-20 in games they held opponents to less than 50 percent shooting from the field as compared to 37-24 in 1987-88.

Chaney kept five players from 1987-88 and brought in nine new faces over the course of the season and molded them into a team that earned a fifth straight winning season and a fifth straight playoff appearance—both franchise firsts.

There have been more than 40 coaching changes in the NBA over the last 5 years, and four times the new coach has had five or less players back from the previous team (the average is 8 returning players)—Chaney is one of the four coaches and the only one to post a winning record.

Looking at Chaney's background, his accomplishments shouldn't be a surprise.

The former University of Houston star (1965-68) was an assistant coach at Atlanta in 1987-88. He was the Los Angeles Clippers' head coach (1985-87), an assistant coach for the Clippers (1983-85), and an assistant at Detroit (1980-83) after ending a professional career that spanned 12 seasons (1968-80).

Atlanta General Manager Stan Kasten had this to say about the 43-year-old Chaney, "When we hired him we couldn't expect to keep him long. He's a fine coach and one of the warmest, most wonderful human beings you will ever be around. Chaney's personality is very important. His sincerity is why he gets along so well with players. It's one of the main reasons he will be very, very successful in Houston."

Chaney played 11 seasons in the NBA, one in the ABA after being the 12th pick in the first round of the 1968 draft by Boston. Chaney spent seven seasons with the Celtics (1968-75), before playing one season with the St. Louis Spirits (1975-76). He returned to the NBA in 1976-77 with the Los Angeles Lakers and then was traded back to Boston in December of 1977 where he finished his career.

A five-time second-team All-NBA defensive selection, Chaney is the only player in Celtics' history to have played with Bill Russell and Larry Bird. Boston, Chaney's favorite team as a youngster, won the NBA title in his rookie season (1969), which was the last time a team had won consecutive championships until the Lakers accomplished this feat in 1986-87 and 1987-88.

Midway through his second season, Chaney teamed with Jo Jo White as the starting guards and they helped lead Boston to an NBA championship in 1974. After his one season at St. Louis, the ABA was no more and four teams joined the NBA—St. Louis folded. Chaney signed with the LA Lakers as a free agent. That Lakers' team lost to Portland and the Walton Gang in the Western Conference finals.

Los Angeles traded Chaney and Kermit Washington to Boston for Charlie Scott in December 1977. Near the end of his final season, 1979-80, a hamstring injury sidelined him for the year. Boston's coach, Bill Fitch, asked Chaney to go scout an opponent.

"The interest to coach started there," the Baton Rouge, LA, native said.

He is beginning his 22nd year in pro basketball, and possesses a rich background in the game. Consider a few of his former teammates—Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Moses Malone, John Havlicek, Dave Cowens. He roomed with Don Nelson in Boston and played for Jerry West in Los Angeles.

It all started in Baton Rouge where he played for McKinley High's Carl Stewart where he averaged 26 points a game his senior season. Then he, and Elvin Hayes became the first blacks to play basketball at University of Houston in 1964. The Cougars controlled the town during a three-year span that saw the Hayes-Chaney duo lead them to an 81-12 record and two Final Four appearances. UH was ranked No. 1 in the nation in 1968 and won 31 straight games before losing to UCLA in the national semifinals.

Chaney and Hayes were also part of college basketball history on Jan. 20, 1968 in the Astrodome when they led the Cougars to a 71-69 win over UCLA to take over the No. 1 ranking in the nation. This was the first regular-season major college game to be nationally televised, plus it was the largest regular-season crowd (52,693) to witness a college game. Chaney played all 40 minutes, scored 11 points, had six rebounds and made three key steals in the last five minutes to help pull out the win.

"The UCLA game stands out more than anything," Chaney said of his entire basketball career. "I run into people who remember me for that—and I played 12 years (in the pros)."

Chaney was a second-team AP, UPI All-America selection his senior season.

He lists among his hobbies, fishing, racquetball and restoring antique cars. His sports fantasy is sky diving.

Chaney is married (wife Jackie), they have one son (Michael) and two daughters (Donna and Kara).

DON CHANEY has been in the NBA since 1968-69, as a player - with Boston and the Lakers, as an assistant coach, and now begins his second season as head coach of the Rockets.

TM

CARROLL DAWSON

Assistant Coach

"CD" begins his 10th season with the Rockets, working with his third head coach (Del Harris 1980-83, Bill Fitch 1983-88). A "True Texan", Dawson hails from Alba, population 200, about 75 miles east of Dallas. As a 6-foot-5 center he led Alba High to an incredible 44-3 record as a senior. He then went on to win Junior College All-America honors at Paris, TX, under Head Coach Boyd Converse. Dawson earned All-Southwest Conference honors at Baylor his senior season when he averaged 16.4 points, and 8.8 rebounds in 1960. Dawson, who led the Bill Henderson's Baylor Bears in scoring and rebounding both seasons, averaged 13.3 points and 7.3 rebounds his junior year. In 1963 he returned to Baylor as an assistant to Head Coach Bill Menefee. He succeeded Menefee as head coach in 1973 and remained for 3 1/2 seasons. Dallas Cowboys' executive Gil Brandt hired Dawson as a scout for the football team, but a year later Dawson entered the business world as a salesman for Converse Shoe Company. A bachelor, Dawson resides in Houston and ranks among the top golfers in the coaching profession.

RUDY TOMJANOVICH

Assistant Coach

Rudy T. is entering his seventh season as a Rockets' assistant coach, his 20th season with Rockets. He spent his entire 11-year NBA career with the Rockets, and was a scout for two years following his retirement in 1981. Calvin Murphy (23) and Tomjanovich (45) are the only Rockets to have their numbers retired. His 13,383 points ranks him second to Murphy on the Rockets' all-time list, while his 6,198 rebounds place him behind only Elvin Hayes and Moses Malone. He averaged better than 20 points a game four different seasons, with a high of 24.5 in 1973-74. Five times he was selected to play in the NBA All-Star game, including a starting spot in the 1979 game at Pontiac, Mich., after he came back from a facial fracture suffered in December, 1977. He was a fixture at starting forward for the Rockets his first nine seasons. He led the team in scoring four times, rebounding once and in field goal percentage five times. He had a .501 career field goal percentage. A native of Hamtramck, MI, he graduated from the University of Michigan where he is that school's all-time leading rebounder (1,089), and third highest scorer (1,808) behind Mike McGee and Cazzie Russell. Since 1974, Michigan's Most Improved Player Award has been named after him. Rudy and his wife Sophie reside in Southwest Houston with daughters Nicole 16, and Melissa 13, and son Rudy III, 6.

JOHN KILLILEA

Assistant Coach/Player Personnel

Killilea, who joined the Rockets Aug. 1, 1988, brings 14 years of NBA experience into his job of scouting the college and pro teams. Killilea was an assistant coach for Boston, Milwaukee and New Jersey (1971-85); he retired after the 1984-85 season for one year and then returned as head coach of the CBA's Topeka Sizzlers the last two seasons. This has been a reunion with second-year head coach Don Chaney as Killilea was an assistant for Boston from 1971-72 through the 1976-77 seasons--Chaney was the Celtics' starting guard during that time frame. Boston won five division titles and two NBA championships in Killilea's six seasons (1974, 1976 championships). Then he joined Milwaukee's Don Nelson as assistant coach and assistant director of player personnel from 1977-78 to 1982-83--the Bucks won four division championships in his last four seasons. Then he spent two seasons with New Jersey (Stan Albeck was the head coach)--in 1984 the Nets eliminated the defending NBA champion Philadelphia 76ers from the playoffs. Prior to joining the Celtics Killilea coached 18 years at five high schools in Maine and Massachusetts, compiling a 325-85 record (.793). His teams won six state championships in nine visits to the playoffs. He was voted Maine coach of the year (1957), and is a member of both the Maine Hall of Fame (1975) and Massachusetts Basketball Hall of Fame (1976). During his last two years as a high school coach he also found time to do some scouting on a parttime basis for Milwaukee Bucks' coach Larry Costello. A 1952 Boston University graduate, Killilea also holds a Master's Degree in Educational Administration from Salem (MA) State. Recognized as one of the game's premier clinicians, he has conducted camps and coaching sessions throughout the world the last 20 years. He and his wife Eli reside in Brookfield, WI.

RAY MELCHIORRE

Trainer, Traveling Secretary

Melchiorre is in his third season with the Rockets, his 19th in professional basketball after becoming only the second trainer/traveling secretary in Houston Rockets' history in August 1987. He succeeded Dick Vandervoort who passed away July 4, 1987 while at his farm in Maryland. Prior to joining Houston, Melchiorre spent eight seasons with Boston, six with the Buffalo Braves and two with the Pittsburgh Condors (ABA). His flexibility program resulted in a dramatic reduction of muscle strains and related injuries over his tenure with Boston. He was only the fifth trainer in the 42-year history of the Celtics. The Philadelphia native is a 1970 graduate of Bethel (McKenzie, TN) College, where he was head trainer and baseball coach for four years. Melchiorre is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and licensed Texas Athletic Trainer Association. He has taught athletic injury courses at the University of Buffalo, Canisius College and Buffalo State College. During the summer Ray continues his work and stays busy with camps throughout the United States--plus making speaking appearances. Melchiorre was the East's trainer for the 1983 NBA All-Star game, and was the host trainer for the 1989 game in Houston. Ray and his wife Liz reside in Houston. They have a son, Michael who is Media Relations/Marketing Assistant with the Rockets, and two daughters, Kathy and Lisa.

CALVIN MURPHY

Assistant Coach, Shooting/Community Relations

The "Greatest Rocket of Them All" returned Feb. 3, 1989 as the team's shooting coach and to work in community relations. Calvin Murphy, the franchise's all-time leading scorer and one of two Rockets to have his number retired (former teammate and fellow coach Rudy Tomjanovich is the other), works with the younger players, plus he gives speeches and clinics while wearing his community relations hat. Murphy scored 17,949 points in 1,002 games—all with Houston (1970-83). The former Niagara All-America still holds the NBA record for most consecutive free throws made (78, Dec. 27, 1980 - Feb. 28, 1981), and highest FT percentage in one season (.958, 206-215, 1980-81). Murphy led the NBA in free throw percentage twice (1981, 1983), and finished among the Top Five nine other times—including second on eight occasions. Murphy (5) and Rick Barry (7) are the only two players in league history to have shot .900 or better from the line in five or more seasons. The Norwalk, Conn., native is one of only two Rockets to have ranked among the Top 10 in four different statistical categories in one season (Akeem Olajuwon 1987-88, 1988-89 is the other). He still owns the Rockets' single-game scoring record of 57 points vs New Jersey on March 18, 1978—he was 24-40 from the field, 9-12 from the line. Murphy was named to the NBA All-Rookie team in 1971 after being drafted by the Rockets in the second round (18th pick overall). His greatest single season came in 1977-78 when he averaged 25.6 points in 76 games. He averaged better than 20 points a game in five seasons (three consecutive, 1978-80). Murphy averaged in double figures every season he played—professionally, in college and high school.

Calvin averaged 33.1 points in 77 games for Niagara—he averaged 48.9 points in 19 freshman games in 1966-67. Murphy is married (wife Vernetta) and they have two daughters (Tiffani, Tracie) and one son (Calvin Jr.).

ROCKETS ON THE AIR

One of professional sports most complete broadcast packages is enjoyed by the Houston Rockets. All games are broadcast on the Rockets' 19-station radio network, with KTRH-740 AM serving as the flagship station; all the games are also broadcast in Spanish on KXYZ-1320 AM. The Rockets distribute their radio broadcasts on satellite via the Texas State Network, which also makes it possible to send special programming to all of the affiliates which cover a five-state area including Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana.

All road games are telecast by KTXH TV-20 and 36 of 41 home games will be cablecast by Home Sports Entertainment (HSE)—games not scheduled for HSE include: Nov. 19 vs Miami, Nov. 30 vs Charlotte, Feb. 6 vs Minnesota, March 31 vs Minnesota and April 12 vs Charlotte; the April 22 game vs Utah is a possible CBS telecast—if so, this game also wouldn't be shown on HSE.

As part of the NBA television package, the Rockets are scheduled for two appearances on TNT (Nov. 21 at New York, Feb. 13 vs Boston), plus the possibility of two showings by CBS. A weekly Rocket radio show, "Inside the Rockets" featuring team President and General Manager Ray Patterson, is heard one hour before tipoff on weekend games. Head Coach Don Chaney can be heard weekly on KTRH Radio (740 AM), and can be seen weekly on KHOU-TV (Channel 11) with Giff Nielsen during the basketball season.

The Radio Team

Gene Peterson, who is entering his 15th season as Voice of the Rockets, will be joined on all broadcasts for a third straight year by Rockets' Director of Communications, Jim Foley.

Peterson joined the Rockets in 1975 and has broadcast 1,148 regular season and 88 playoff games without a miss. The Albert Lea, MN, native studied broadcasting at Brown Institute in Minneapolis. After Air Force duty he began his radio career at WECL, Eau Claire, WI. He also worked at KOB, Albuquerque, NM; KCMO, Kansas City, MO; and KPRC, Houston, before joining the Rockets. Gene and his wife, Marsha, reside in Kingwood—they have two sons, Todd, 26, and Paul, 17, plus one daughter, Jennifer, 23. One of the top golfers in the broadcast ranks, the Houston Irish Open Tournament has borne his name for the last four years despite his Scandinavian background.

Foley, who is beginning his 21st NBA season (17 Houston, 3 Milwaukee), was the Rockets' Director of Public Relations for 15 years after serving in that position three years with the Milwaukee Bucks. He was promoted to Director of Communications in August, 1987. The Marquette University graduate comes from LaSalle, IL. Following school, he served as an officer in the Navy for four years, and began his public relations career with the New York Central Railroad in Chicago. He was named Sports Information Director in 1965 at Marquette where he worked for four years before joining the NBA Bucks in 1969. He is active in area Irish activities, including Houston's annual St. Patrick's Day Parade—he was the Grand Marshall in 1989. He is also an avid golfer. He and his wife Carolyn reside in Houston.

Rolando Becerra (play-by-play) and Alex Lopez-Negrete (color) are in their second season of describing Rockets' action in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM). The 40-year-old Becerra has been in the radio business 20 years, starting in Miami on WQBA as a sports reporter. He has been in Houston the last 11 years, and has been KXYZ's News/Sports Director since 1983. Since 1986 Becerra has been the Spanish voice of the Houston Astros. Becerra and his wife Jenny reside in Pasadena—they have one daughter (Barbara) and two sons (Jason, Jarón).

Lopez-Negrete, who was born in Houston, raised and educated in Mexico City, is president of Third Coast Marketing. Alex started his professional career in the U.S. by representing the Grupo Novedades de publicaciones (the largest publishing conglomerate in Mexico) in the Southwest. He also served as international/Mexico marketing counsel for some of Houston's largest advertising agencies, real estate developers and retailers before opening his own business. Alex and his wife Cathy reside in Missouri City—they have one daughter (Michelle) and son (Patrick).

The TV Team

Bill Worrell, plus a host of former Rockets—Mike Newlin, Tom Nissalke and Calvin Murphy, will team up to describe all the Rockets' action in 1989-90. Worrell will handle all play-by-play duties, with Newlin offering color commentary and Murphy handling interviews on all HSE telecasts; Nissalke will be the color commentator on all road telecasts (KTXH), with Bruce Gietzen handling anchor chores in the studio.

Worrell is a graduate of Lamar High and University of Houston where he played varsity baseball. He began his broadcast career at Houston's KRPC-TV 2 in 1970, and was that station's Sports Director from 1974 through 1980. He has been HSE's Sports Director since it began operation in 1982. He has done play-by-play not only for the Rockets but also for the Astros, and Oilers—plus college football and basketball. He has been involved with Rockets' telecasts on Channel 20 and HSE for the last four seasons after having done play-by-play on Rockets' telecasts for KHTV-39 in 1980-81 and 1981-82. A bachelor, he also is one of the fine golfers associated with the Rockets.

Newlin, the Rockets' second-round draft pick in 1971, played 11 seasons in the NBA—his first eight with Houston. The 40-year-old native of Portland, OR, is sixth on the all-time Rockets' scoring list with 8,480 points in 604 games (14.0 per game); he is also fifth in free throw percentage (.864) and third in assists (2,581). Newlin played two seasons with the New Jersey Nets, and one with the New York Knicks before retiring following the 1981-82 season. He scored 12,507 points in 837 games—a 14.9 per game average.

This is Murphy's first appearance on Rockets' home TV as an announcer. He also handles community relations work, and helps the Rockets' players work on shooting (for further info, see his biography on page 9).

Nissalke, beginning his second season, is quite familiar with Houston as he coached the Rockets to their first division championship in 1976-77. He was the Rockets' head coach for three seasons, compiling a 124-122 record. Nissalke spent 16 seasons in professional basketball, 14 as a head coach. His teams won 370 games as he coached five years in the ABA (Dallas-San Antonio and Utah), and nine years in the NBA (Seattle, Houston, Utah and Cleveland). He was named NBA Coach of the Year in 1976-77 for leading Houston to a 49-33 record and a Central Division title; he was ABA Coach of the Year at San Antonio in 1971-72. He is one of only three coaches in pro history to have been selected coach of the year in both leagues (Alex Hannum, Bill Sharman). Tom, who co-owns Green Street Social Club in Trolley Square in Salt Lake City, resides in Utah's capital city with his wife Nancy. They have a son, Tom II a senior Civil Engineering major at University of Utah; and a daughter, Holly a senior pre-law major at University of Utah.

1988-89: Equalled season-high with 8 points, 3-5 FG, 2-2 FTs in 10 minutes, April 4, at Indiana...Jan. 31 game vs LA Lakers is one he will never forget—just before opening tip famed Kissing Bandit Morganna smooched Kareem Abdul-Jabbar at midcourt, and then rushed to the Rockets' bench to kiss a stunned Nevitt—the sixth-year pro responded with a season-high 8 points, 4-6 FG, 1 rebounds, 1 steal in 6 minutes...another top game was Nov. 8 vs San Antonio when he had 4 blocks and 3 rebounds in nine minutes—Houston outscored SA 32-14 during his stint...this was fifth straight season Nevitt has played on a playoff team (Detroit previous three, LA Lakers in 1984-85).

CAREER: This is third time with Houston...member of 1985 LA Lakers' NBA champions...member of 1988 Pistons' squad that made it to the finals, losing in seven games to Lakers...enjoyed best pro game Jan. 7, 1987 vs New York when he scored career-high 12 points, had a career-high 10 rebounds and career-high 5 blocks...played in 17 straight games during 1986-87 when Rick Mahorn was injured...waived by Rockets prior to 1983-84 season and spent the year playing for the Houston Flyers, a national AAU runners-up, and working in the King Size Company, a clothing store for big and tall men in Houston.

EXPERIENCE. We pioneered "specialized personnel recruiting" over 40 years ago. Since then we've continued to do what we do best: finding top-notch financial executives, accountants, bookkeepers and data processing professionals to meet our clients' specific needs.

PERFORMANCE. How do we do it? Our Placement Managers are experts at locating hard-to-find professionals. Each has a wide range of contacts and an insider's knowledge of job markets and current salaries. Usually, they'll find the best candidate for your job locally. But when a position is especially hard to fill, they can call on our worldwide network of 145 Robert Half offices.

INTEGRITY. At Robert Half, we're success-oriented. So there is never a charge for our services unless you hire one of our candidates.

All in all, it's no surprise that in a national independent survey, personnel directors rated Robert Half the best service of its kind — 4 to 1 over the runner-up.

THE SUMMIT

The Houston Rockets have called The Summit home since the building first opened in 1975. The Summit, which seats 16,279 for Rockets' games and better than 17,000 for other events, is located on a seven-acre site north of the Southwest Freeway, between Edloe and Timmons streets--approximately four miles from downtown.

Houston has compiled a 374-200 (.652) record in 14 seasons (24-19 in the playoffs) since the first game was played on Nov. 2, 1975 vs Milwaukee--a 104-89 Houston win. The Rockets have sold out 135 of the last 137 home dates including exhibitions and playoffs; taking a streak of 37 consecutive sellouts into their 15th Summit season. Houston has drawn better than 700,000 four straight seasons (including playoffs), averaging 16,028 per game. The Rockets top season was 1987-88 when they sold out every exhibition, regular-season and playoff game.

The Rockets will call The Summit home through the year 2,003 after signing a seven-year extension on their lease in October 1988. The Rockets also have exclusive control of the signage in the arena, television production of Rockets' games, program advertising and sales.

The site was donated to the City of Houston by Greenway Plaza, Kenneth Schnitzer, Chairman of the Board. Construction of The Summit began in late 1973 following approval by the Houston City Council in October that year. Construction was financed by the sale of $18 million of first mortgage revenue bonds. Under terms of a 30-year contract with the city, the operator of The Summit is the Arena Operating Company, Mike McGee, president.

The building, 427-feet long by 312-feet wide, offers unobstructed viewing from seats on two major levels and from 20 plush private Summit suites located above the upper promenade level. Maximum distance of any spectator from the arena floor is 128 feet.

Some other features of the building, which has more than 2 million patrons attend 175 events annually, include two 20-foot wide by 15-feet high TelScreens suspended at each end of the arena; 55 Sony television monitors located throughout the concourse so patrons will not miss anything going on inside the arena; two 100-foot auxiliary scoreboards added in 1988 to the fascia at midcourt of the upper promenade (on both sides)--which also has message boards to keep patrons up-to-date on happenings in the NBA.

There are 12 hotels and 25 restaurants within a 2-mile radius of the building. The Summit is within 40 minutes of Houston's two major airports, Houston Intercontinental and William P. Hobby.
